FELLOWS' ORIGINAL
WORM LOZENGES.
We can with confidence point to FELLOWS' WORM LOZENGES as the most perfect remedy for these troublesome pests,
INTESTINAL WORMS.
After years of careful experiment, success has crowned our efforts, and we now offer to the world a confection without a single fault, being safe, convenient, effectual and pleasant. No injurious result can occur, let them be used in whatever quantity. Not a particle of calomel enters their composition. They may be used without further preparation, and at any time. Children will eagerly devour all you give them, and ask for more. They never fail in expelling Worms from their dwelling-place, and they will always strengthen the weak and emaciated, even when he is not afflicted with worms.
Various remedies have, from time to time, been recommended, such as calomel, oil of wormseed, turpentine, &c., producing dangerous and sometimes fatal consequences. After much research, study and experiments, embracing several years, the proprietors of FELLOWS' WORM LOZENGES have succeeded in producing this remedy, free from all objections, and positively safe, pleasant and effectual. They do not kill the worms, but act by making their dwelling-place disagreeable to them. In order to assure consumers of the genuineness of these Lozenges, the analysis of Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer, is annexed:—
"I have analysed the WORM LOZENGES prepared by Messrs. FELLOWS & CO., and find that they are free from mercury and other metallic or mineral matter. These Lozenges are skillfully compounded, pleasant to the taste, safe, yet sure and effectual in their action. Respectfully, A. A. HAYES, M. D., Assayer to the State of Mass."
Price 25 cents per Box; Five for $1.

Important to Lumbermen
AND
Owners of Hemlock Lands.
THE AMERICAN PATENTED IMPROVEMENT TANNING COMPANY of New York own the exclusive right in the United States for the manufacture of an imperishable "EXTRACT" from Hemlock Bark for tanning purposes. The Bark Extract is now extensively used among Tanners, and the demand for it is rapidly increasing. It commands a ready sale in the Boston, New York and Philadelphia markets, at sixty cents per gallon. The appliances for manufacturing are simple and not expensive, costing but little more than the ordinary leaches used by Tanners. By this process 1½ cords of bark may be reduced so as to concentrate the entire strength into forty gallons of Extract, without in the slightest degree injuring its tanning qualities, and at a cost not exceeding one dollar per cord. The saving in freight alone, between the transportation of the Extract and the Bark, will range from six to eight dollars per cord, so that any one who may get out but 1,000 cords of Bark per year, may save from twelve hundred to twenty-five hundred dollars in the difference in freight.
The Company does not propose to sell Territorial rights, but will grant ... privilege to manufacture ... small royalty per gallon on the amount ... extract.

American & Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS.
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.
No. 78 State Street, (opposite Kilby street,) Boston.
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all papers or drawings for Patents, executed on reasonable terms, with dispatch. Researches made into American and Foreign works, to determine the validity and utility of Patents of Inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.
No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.
During eight months the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS; every one of which was decided in his favor by the Commissioner of Patents.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON," Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can not employ a man more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE," Late Commissioner of Patents.
"Mr. R. H. EDDY has made for me THIRTEEN applications, in all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. Financial Record.

NATIONAL BANK FAILURES.
First National Bank of Attica, N. Y. Failed.—Merchants' Nat'l Bank, Washington, D.C. Failed. National Union Bank of Rochester, N. Y. Closing. Venango National Bank, Franklin, Pa. Failed.

COUNTERFEIT—FIRST NATIONAL BANK NOTES.
20s, a close imitation of the genuine notes, and well calculated to deceive. The back of the bill is rather coarse. The plate liable to be altered to any of the National Banks.

HIGHLAND NATIONAL BANK OF NEWBURG, N. Y.
10s, imitation—figure of liberty on an eagle on right end, Franklin and boy on left. The signatures are engraved in the counterfeit, and in the genuine they are written. The lightning, grasped by the hand of Liberty, is barely perceptible in the genuine while in the counterfeit it is broadly defined on a dark, coarse back-ground, which in the genuine is light. On the back of the note the followers of DeSoto appear as if engaged in a terrible battle, and appear mixed up, while in the fore ground, that which is designed for a priest, bears the exact image of a monkey.

UNITED STATES COMPOUND INTEREST NOTES.
50s, imitation; vig. (on left end) female erect, holding sword in left hand, her right hand resting on Bible—male bust, 50 on die above on right end. Well done and likely to deceive good judges.
100s, counterfeits are in circulation. A fac-simile of the genuine bill, but the engraving is not so fine. They are dated May 15th, 1865; Letter B. The green ink in the back of the counterfeit is paler than that in the genuine. Be careful and examine well all before taking them, as they have deceived some of our best judges.

UNITED STATES LEGAL TENDER NOTES.
10s, imitation—the portrait of Lincoln on the left end is very dark, and the eyes poor, while the toes of the female on the right end can scarcely be seen. On the genuine they are very distinct. Look out for them.
20s, imitations—poorly done; engraving coarse, and the bills look blurred. The green ink used is lighter than the genuine. The dies and 20s are one-eighth of an inch larger than the genuine.
100s imitated. Upper left, spread eagle sitting on a rock. The general appearance of the bill is good. The wings of the eagle are coarse and cloudy streaky. The imprint of the American Bank Note Company at the top is larger than on the genuine. On the right end of the back of the bill the 100 in the circles are inverted thus: "100." In the genuine the 100 in the circles on the left end read thus: "001;" in the counterfeit they are thus: "100." The paper is also heavier.

NATIONAL BANKS.
1s, altered to 10s—vig. of 1s, two female figures with hands clasped, one pointing upwards. 10s having figure of Franklin drawing electricity from the clouds; and on the back of the bill is DeSoto discovering the Mississippi. On back of 1s, is the Landing of the Pilgrims. Well done.
5s, altered from 5s; the 5s have vigs. on each end—on Landing of Columbus on back. Look out for this alteration.

The President Preparing to Enforce the Military Reconstruction Law—The Probable Department Commanders.

NEW YORK, March 7.

The Herald's special Washington despatch says—

The President, his Cabinet and General Grant, are very busy preparing to put the military reconstruction law in operation.

The correspondent is reliably informed that Gens. Thomas, Sheridan, Sickles, Schofield and Ord, will be the district commissioners.

TORONTO, Mar. 7.

It is understood that orders have been received from Headquarters to put two thousand volunteers in readiness for immediate service on the frontier. It is supposed that the authorities have received information of an intended Fenian movement.

WASHINGTON, March 7.

Judge Underwood and fourteen others have sent a memorial to Congress setting forth that the reconstruction act has been openly defied by the authorities of Alexandria, Va.; holding that the act distinctly and positively enfranchised the colored citizens of the rebel States, and asking relief in the premises. Also, that all rebels should be compelled to climb upon the Union platform before their forfeited political rights are restored to them.

HUDSON, N. Y., Mar. 7.

The town meetings held in this county Tuesday resulted in the election of fourteen republican and six democratic supervisors. The last board stood ten to ten.

HOW VIRGINIA IS ADVISED. The Boston Advertiser's correspondence of the 5th says the Governor of Virginia sent quite a long message to the legislature, recommending action under the new reconstruction bill.—The following is the concluding portion:

The theory of this bill is that for acts heretofore done by the people of Virginia, they have placed themselves in a condition in which the organization of the government may be broken up. One of the ways in which a State or Commonwealth may be destroyed is by a superior power in arms or by the power of war. When destroyed in this way the power of the conqueror annuls the organic and statute laws of the State, and substitutes new laws in their place; and with the destruction of the law the title to to the property may die with it, and the conqueror may divide the property therein among all his followers, or give it to designated persons, or he may sell it to the highest bidder in large or small parcels. Then he becomes the new guarantor of a title so granted, and the title depends on his ability to defend it. This is no new theory nor the indication of any new practice. The greater part of England has been divided out in this way several times. The most of their present tenures were derived and are held in this way. The same is true of a large part of the continent of Europe. Nor is this theory a new one in Virginia. It formed the theme of most of the public speeches made on this side during the war, and elaborate newspaper articles were written to stimulate the people to desperate action by the assurance that if the confederate cause failed the owners would lose all their slaves, their lands would be confiscated and divided among the federal soldiers and colored people, and even embracing the other idea in the bill—that the negroes would be clothed with all the civil and political rights of the white man.

It was on this theory that the torch was applied to this beautiful city, and millions of treasure given to the devouring flames.—It is on this theory that the very air is rife with the rumor that a most stringent confiscation bill is now pending in Washington to be put in operation. I think the people may be saved from this threatened danger. Gentlemen, I am deeply in earnest on this subject. I have been pained in the last fifteen months to see the irritating causes which have produced this legislation at Washington. I have tried to discourage them. My efforts have been turned into ridicule, and defamation has followed the best intended acts. If punishment could fall on those only who have provoked the trouble, there would be but few regrets, but this cannot be. The innocent also must suffer. If there is any truth in human testimony, three-fourths of the men of Virginia—farmers, mechanics and merchants—are as well disposed as any people in the nation.—The causes of irritation come from comparatively few. The masses earnestly desire peace and its blessings, and have no sympathy with those restless agitators and disturbers of the public peace. I think the only proper mode of securing safety and tranquility to the State is for the legislature, on the basis of the above act of Congress, in good faith to carry out the requirements of the law, and adapt ourselves to the new state of affairs at once.

I have confidence that our colored people will quietly assume the new privileges conferred on them, and will act very much like those who now enjoy the franchise, by voting for their friends. It is proper that the proposed convention shall be ordered by the General Assembly. Any other mode would be irregular, and may be productive of disorder and result in the worse consequences. It may be distasteful to the members of the General Assembly, but personal considerations cannot and ought not to be allowed to have any influence in this case. You are representative men. The individual sinks in the representative. The fortunes and happiness of a million of people may depend on your prompt action. The question is not what is pleasant or distasteful to you, but what does the interest and welfare of your constituents and State demand at your hand? I hope you will not shrink from the responsibility, but act promptly. May a merciful God grant peace to our distracted State and give confidence to a desponding people."

CLOSE OF THE THIRTY-NINTH CONGRESS. The Washington correspondent of the New York Times says:

"It should go into history that the conduct of the Thirty-ninth Congress, in its closing hours, was all honor to itself and the nation it represented. Without exception, the demeanor and bearing of both Houses was never characterized by more dignity or more freedom from those accidents ... sometimes reflected ...

JOHN PIERPONT AND THE WILLIAMS WINE FRAUDS. The Boston correspondent of the Norwich Bulletin says:

"A curious story is going the rounds in regard to this case, and the connection with it of the Rev. John Pierpont, late a clerk in the Treasury Department. I am able to vouch for the authority of the story. On the day before his death Mr. Pierpont related what he said was a fact not generally known, that it was through him that attention was first called to the fraud committed by the Messrs. Williams. Certain papers came under his eye which revealed to him that all was not right with the accounts of his old wine-selling persecutors, who drove him out of the pulpit at Hollis St. Church, in Boston. He felt sure that champagne was not bought by them at the price set down in their invoices returned to the Department.

He called attention to the matter, and was directed to make investigations, which he did, with the result of uncovering extensive frauds. Thus the firm which drove Mr. Pierpont from Boston, and so finally occasioned his being in the Treasury Department, drew down upon itself by that act the terrible penalty which overtook it in the exposure secured through Mr. Pierpont. This was Mr. Pierpont's story, related by him to illustrate the ways of Providence, and with no personal feelings towards a firm which had irreparably injured him in return for his denunciation of its selfish trade in intoxicating drinks. The venerable clergyman and poet was of an eminently forgiving temper, and utterly incapable of rejoicing over the calamity of an enemy."

In describing the closing scenes of the Thirty-ninth Congress, the Boston Advertiser's correspondent had the following:

Messengers were continually passing to and from their room, communicating the President's action to one house or the other. He signed all the bills that were laid before them. He gave the bankrupt bill his signature without objection. The woollen tariff bill he spoke of as a villanous measure, and it was believed till almost the last moment that he would pocket it. He had questioned Mr. Wells, the Revenue Commissioner, much and had consulted with Mr. McCulloch and Mr. Rollins. It is understood that the Secretary of the Treasury advised him to sign it, because it would do something to break down the movement for high protection.—He finally, with great reluctance, and just on the stroke of 12 o'clock, gave his approval, protesting verbally that he did not at all like the measure. The army appropriation bill was also signed, though not without a written protest against the second section, which requires that Gen. Grant shall remain on duty here and that all army orders shall be issued from his office; and, also, against the sixth section, which originated with Mr. Wilson, and disbands all the militia organizations in the South. There was a crowd continually about the door of the room, and eager desire was manifested to see the man who, having provoked a contest with the 39th Congress, had been overthrown and bound hand and foot.

The Senate was ostensibly in executive session till noon, though the doors were, from time to time, opened for two or three minutes for other business and to receive messages from the house and the President. The number of confirmations was small, but the rejections were numerous enough.

DEPARTURE OF THE FRENCH FROM MEXICO. The New Orleans Picayune says of the departure of the French from Mexico: Unless there was some delay in getting down to the coast, and in the embarkation, the French Expeditionary Corps from Mexico must be now well out at sea. We understand that the number of men is about 20,000. Of the whole 40,000 sent to Mexico some 10,000 were sent home, and probably about the same number killed. We learn by letters from Martinique that the fleet will call at Port La France. It will be an imposing sight, protected as it is by powerful frigates, and will make a sensation in the West Indies, as also on its arrival in France.

THE POPULATION OF EUROPEAN CITIES. In 1866 censuses were taken in Great Britain and France, and the report shows the following population of the principal cities: London, 3,087,991; Paris, 1,825,274; Liverpool, 484,337; Glasgow, 432,265; Manchester, 358,855; Birmingham, 335,798; Lyons, 323,954; Dublin, 318,437; Marseilles, 300,131. Leeds, 228,197; Sheffield, 218,257; Bordeaux, 194,241; Edinburgh, 175,128; Bristol, 163,680; Lille, 154,779; Toulouse, 126,936; Newcastle-on-Tyne, 122,277; Salford, 112,904; Nantes, 111,956; Hull, 105,238, and Rouen, 100,671. New York and Philadelphia have each a greater population than any of these cities after London and Paris.

The Traveller correspondent says that the President has approved the action directing the Secretary of the Navy to release Mr. Webb from his "Dunderburg" contract—upon his refunding the money advanced upon account. It seems well settled that the "Dunderburg" is too valuable a vessel to have her sold to a foreign power. The government will appoint a board of appraisers to fix her value and purchase her, it being understood that Mr. Webb is willing to abide the decision of the board appointed by the Navy Department, and will sell his vessel to the United States upon any equitable terms, although he has an offer of $3,000,000 from a European power.

Wm. Lloyd Garrison has been appointed to represent the American Freedmen's Union Commission at the World's Anti-Slavery Conference, to be held at Paris in June next. Wm. C. Bryant of New York, and Col. C. G. Hammond of Chicago, have also been chosen by the Freedmen's Commission to serve as representatives on this occasion. The latter gentlemen are now in Europe, and Mr. Garrison, it is expected, will sail in May.

TERRIBLE THREAT. A "conservative" paper closing an article denouncing the Reconstruction law with the following extract from a letter from New Orleans, which, it says, is a specimen of the feelings at the South:

"Of one thing you may be assured, if the Military bill passes. The last straw will be laid on the camel's back and our best classes will go North. Already preparations are going forward and many families will go under any circumstances. You will find New York with a large Southern population during the summer month."

The Bangor and Piscataquis Railroad Loan Bill.

We publish this morning, as a matter in which all our citizens have a deep interest, "An act to authorize the city of Bangor to aid in the construction of a Railroad into Piscataquis County."

We wish to address to the citizens of Bangor a few earnest words calling their attention to this question, which seems to us almost a vital one, in determining what the future of Bangor is to be. It is for us to determine whether the teeming treasures of Piscataquis county, in many respects the wealthiest county in the State, shall be poured into our lap whither they naturally tend, or shall be diverted elsewhere.—Piscataquis is more than willing to come to us, but she cannot come alone, and other interested parties will aid her to become tributary elsewhere.

Merchants of Bangor—can you afford to see the trade of the Piscataquis country including the lumbering supplies which go in to the woods by way of Moosehead Lake and Katahdin Iron Works, drawn away to a point west of us? You have already lost Aroostook. Is it an experience which you wish to repeat?

Owners of Real Estate—Does it give you any satisfaction to contemplate Bangor ten years from now completely encircled by Railroads which have so diverted business from us that our stores may be labeled "To let," our wharves decaying for want of repairs which business will not render necessary?

Heads of Families—Can you expect to keep yours sons at home unless you can hold out to them a thriving, growing city?

Portland once commenced to "wilt," and it was a most fortunate thing that she did so—for the merchants and owners of real estate got alarmed and built Railroads and made Portland what she now is.

Our 'wilting' turn may be very near at hand unless we move now and move all at once. Let there be no distraction in our counsels. Our interests are common, and as a municipality our interests are well protected by the Legislative enactments which we publish this morning. We would suggest that this issue of our paper containing this bill, be preserved, that when our readers are called upon to vote or act, they may know what they are about.

STATE OF MAINE.

In the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

AN ACT to authorize the city of Bangor to aid in the construction of a railroad into Piscataquis county.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows.

SEC. 1. The city of Bangor is hereby authorized to loan its credit to the Bangor & Piscataquis Railroad Company in aid of the construction of their Railroad into Piscataquis county, to an amount not exceeding fifteen thousand dollars per mile, nor more than the sum of five hundred thousand dollars in all, upon its compliance with the following terms and conditions:

SEC. 2. If this act shall be accepted as hereinafter provided, and said Company shall within two years from its approval locate its line, and shall within four years from its approval complete their Railroad to the Piscataquis river, at or near Milo, and thence to the village of Dover or Foxcroft, from some point on the line of the European and North American Railway in the town of Milford, on the east bank of the Penobscot river, to the approval of the Mayor and Aldermen of said city of Bangor, as a first class railroad, so that cars may pass over the same the whole distance, and shall perform the other conditions hereinafter named, then the said company shall be entitled to receive the full amount of fifteen thousand dollars per mile, not exceeding, however, five hundred thousand dollars in all as herein provided.

SEC. 3. When said company shall complete five miles of said railroad from its southern terminus, connecting such other rail road as aforesaid, then they shall be entitled to receive the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars in part of said sum of five hundred thousand dollars, and for every additional five miles so completed, and so on till the whole line is finished by the running of cars thereon, all said payments to be made by the scrip of said city, payable to the holder thereof in such sums as the directors of said road may determine, with coupons for interest attached, payable semi-annually, the principal payable in thirty years from the date thereof, and all payable in Boston or New York, and the same to be signed by the city treasurer and countersigned by the Mayor of said city.

SEC 4. Concurrent with the issue and delivery of said city scrip as aforesaid, the president and directors of said company, in their official capacity, shall execute and deliver to the said treasurer, the bond of said company, the penal sum in said bond to be double the amount of the scrip authorized to be issued at that time; said bond shall be made payable to said city, and shall be conditioned that said company will duly pay the interest on such scrip of said city as shall be issued at the time of the date of the bond respectively, and also the principal thereof, according to the tenor of the scrip, and in all respects will hold and save harmless the said city on account of the issue of the same; the said president and directors of company shall also, in case of the issuing of the scrip of said city as provided in section two of this act, and simultaneously therewith, make, execute and deliver to the said city treasurer the scrip of said company, payable to the holder thereof, at the same time and for the same amount as the scrip then issued by said treasurer to said company, with like coupons or the interest attached; which said scrip shall be held by said city as collateral security for the fulfilment of the conditions of the said bond, and in default of any one of said conditions, said city may from time to time sell said scrip, or any portion thereof, by public auction or auctions in the cities of Bangor, Boston or New York, or either of them, after sixty days' notice [illegible] proceeds [illegible] on said bond.

SEC. 5. [illegible]

[illegible] be [illegible] to the [illegible] by publication [illegible] lished in a newspaper printed in Bangor and a record thereof may be made within thirty days after the date of the first publication in the registry of deeds for the county of Penobscot, which publication and record shall be sufficient for the purposes of such foreclosure. Upon the expiration of three years from and after such publication, if the condition shall not within that time have been fulfilled the foreclosure shall be complete, and shall make the title to said road, and to all the property and franchise aforesaid, absolute in said city.

SEC. 7. If the directors of said company shall, at any time, neglect to pay the interest, which may become due upon any portion of the scrip issued and delivered under the provisions of this act, or to pay the principal as it shall become due, or to comply with any of the conditions of said bonds, the city of Bangor may take actual possession in the manner hereinafter provided of the whole of said railroad, and of all the property real and personal of the company, and of the franchise thereof, and may hold the same and apply the income thereof to make up and supply such deficiency, and all further deficiencies that may occur while the same are so held, until such deficiencies shall be fully made up and discharged. A written notice, signed by the mayor and aldermen, and served upon the president or treasurer, or any director of the company, or if there are none such, upon any stockholder of the company, stating that the city thereby takes actual possession of the whole line of the railroad, and of the property and franchise of the company, shall be a sufficient actual possession thereof, and shall be a legal transfer of all the same, for the purposes aforesaid to the city, and shall enable the city to hold the same against any other claims thereon until such purposes have been fully accomplished.

SEC. 8. All moneys received by or for the said railroad company, after notice as aforesaid, from any source whatever, and by whomsoever the same may be received, shall belong to, and be held for the use and benefit of the city in manner and for the purposes herein provided, and shall, after notice given to persons receiving the same respectively, be by them paid to the city treasurer, which payment shall be an effectual discharge from all claims of the company therefor; but if any person, without such notice, shall make payment of moneys so received to the treasurer of the company, such payment shall be a discharge of all claims of the city therefor; all moneys received by the treasurer of the company, after such notice, or in his hands at the time such notice may be given, shall be by him paid to the city treasurer, after deducting the amount expended, or actually due for the running expenses of the road, for the services of the officers of the company, and for repairs necessary for conducting the ordinary operations of the road. Such payments to the city treasurer shall be made at the end of every calendar month, and shall be by him applied to the payment of all the interest and principal due as aforesaid. And any person who shall pay or apply any moneys received, as aforesaid, in any manner contrary to the foregoing provisions, shall be liable therefor, and the same may be recovered in an action for money had and received in the name of the city treasurer, whose duty it shall be to sue for the same, to be by him held and applied as herein required.

SEC. 9. For the purpose of effecting the objects prescribed in the two preceding sections, the mayor and aldermen may cause a suit in equity to be instituted in the name of the city of Bangor, in the supreme judicial court in the county of Penobscot, against said company, directors, or any other person, as may be necessary for the purpose of discovery, injunction, account, or other relief under the provisions of this act; and any judge of the court may issue a writ of injunction, or any other suitable process, on any such bill, in vacation or in term time, with or without notice, and the court shall have jurisdiction of the subject matter of such bill, and shall have such proceedings, and make such orders and decrees, as may be within the power, and according to the course of proceedings of courts of equity, as the necessities of the case may require.

SEC. 10. If the railroad company shall, after notice of possession as aforesaid, neglect to choose directors thereof, or any other necessary officers, or none such shall be found, the mayor and aldermen of the city shall appoint a board of directors, consisting of not less than seven persons, or any other necessary officers, and the persons so appointed shall have all the power and authority of officers chosen or appointed under the provisions of the act establishing said company, and upon their acceptance such officers shall be subject to all the duties and liabilities thereof.

SEC. 11. The city shall appoint two of the directors of the said railroad company from among the stockholders, who shall be chosen annually by the city council in joint ballot, before the annual meeting of said company for the choice of their officers, who shall have the same authority in transacting the business of said company, and who shall be entitled to like compensation from the company, as any other director. But the right to choose such directors shall cease when the loan contemplated is extinguished.

SEC. 12. As an additional or cumulative protection for said city, all liabilities which by said city may be assumed or incurred under or by virtue of any of the provisions of this act, shall at the time, and by force thereof, and for the security and payment of the same, create in favor of said city a lien on the whole of said railroad, its franchise, and all its appendages, and all real and personal property of said railroad corporation, which lien shall have preference and be prior to all other liens and incumbrances whatever on the said road from Milford northward or westward in Piscataquis county, and all the other property of said railroad corporation, and said lien shall be enforced and all the rights and interests of said city shall be protected when necessary by suitable and proper judgments, injunction or decrees of said supreme judicial court, on a bill or bills in equity, which power is hereby specially conferred on said court. And it is hereby provided, that the said lien provided for in this section shall not be deemed waived or ineffectual by the acceptance on the part of said city, of any mortgage or other securities contemplated by the provisions of this act, or otherwise.

SEC. 13. This act shall not take effect or be of any force until the city council of said city, by a concurrent vote of at least two thirds of the members of each branch present and voting shall submit the same to a vote of the people of the city, and the legal voters of the city in legal ward meetings, shall by a vote of two-thirds of all the votes thrown in the city at such meetings adopt the same. But if within one year from the approval of this act the city shall accept this act by such concurrent vote of the city council and of the citizen, as aforesaid, then the act shall be in force thereafter and be binding upon the city according to its true tenor and effect but not otherwise.

SEC 14. And whereas, the State of Maine, by an act entitled "An act to provide means for the defence of the north eastern frontier," approved March 24, 1844, donated all its lands lying in the county of Piscataquis to aid the construction of a branch railway to the slate quarries in the valley of the Pleasant river at Brownville, and to the Katahdin Iron Works from any point on the line between Oldtown and Lincoln; it is hereby [illegible] that the proceeds of said lands derived from the sale of land and timber, or from the bonds secured by mortgage of said lands shall be applied by said railway company to the building of said branch railway [illegible] from the claims of Maine and Massachusetts upon the United States government [illegible] section of this act shall [illegible] the European and North American [illegible]

Letter from Mr. Poor.

BOSTON, March 6.

To the Editor of the Daily Whig:

In your issue of Saturday, March 2d, you say the bill to aid the European and North American Railway was defeated probably in the Legislature "in consequence of some opposition to the provisions of the Winterport Railroad bill, on the part of some supporters of the former."

This statement may possibly create an erroneous impression as to the circumstances by which the E. & N. A. Railway bill was defeated. There was no real antagonism between the friends of the Winterport R. R. and those of the E. & N. A. R. W. The petition of Lathly Rich and others for a charter for a railway from Winterport to the Maine Central R. R., was the one on which proceedings were had. The petition of Theophilus Cushing and George Dudley, notice of which was given in the Whig under date of Dec. 15th, 1866, was not presented. Theophilus Cushing, George Dudley, and T. H. Cushing, affixed their names at the foot of the Lathly Rich petition, after it was sent to Augusta.

At the hearing before the Railway Committee, a bill was agreed on, in accordance with the prayer of the petition. It was reported to the House and printed. General Shepley, as it came up for passage in the usual course, moved its postponement to a future day. Mr. Cushing of Frankfort moved a second postponement, but assured me that the bill was entirely satisfactory.—But, on the day assigned for the third reading, Mr. Cushing proposed various amendments—one of which proposed to place the charter under the control of Theophilus Cushing, George Dudley and John Haley; any two of whom were authorized to give personal notice to the corporators, instead of public notice through the newspapers.—These amendments were printed and the bill recommitted to the Railway Committee, who refused to change the bill from the original draft, as to notice of the meeting; and the charter, as finally enacted, authorizes any seven of the corporators to call the first meeting by notice in the newspapers. The bill was amended in other particulars, entirely satisfactorily to all parties, allowing its line to connect with any other railroad.

The real cause of the defeat of the bill to aid the European and North American Railway, probably, was the division of opinion among the Bangor Representatives upon the Piscataquis Railroad. Some of the friends of the Piscataquis Railroad threatened to defeat the E. & N. A. aid bill, if they were not allowed an independent charter, and to form combinations for this purpose. Rather than allow this rivalry of interest at Bangor, the friends of the E. & N. A. Railway preferred to suffer a defeat of their Aid bill.

The matter was finally arranged satisfactorily; but too late to recover the ground that had been lost.

JOHN A. POOR.

TO THE WOMEN OF NEW ENGLAND.

When we took leave of you as fellow-workers for the soldiers in our late war, we told you that we should not entirely dissolve our organization; intending to hold ourselves in readiness to aid in any good work that might occur. The time seems now to have come. To-day we learn now, upon undoubted author ty, that more than 30,000 women and children of Crete, driven from their homes by merciless invaders, are suffering excessively for want of food and clothes. Already preparations have been made to furnish food. It is hoped largely. No general effort has been made, at least in New England, to send clothing; and nakedness seems inevitable to thousands, without prompt action in the matter.

In this emergency, we feel it our duty to take up a work kindred to the one for which we originally organized, and preeminently woman's work, and we call upon our former fellow-workers to join us in it.

We want to prepare within the coming month, five thousand garments of cotton or calico for women and children; chiefly for women. They should be underclothes of cotton, and sacks and skirts of calico. No thicker material is desired. Old garments of the above description will be welcome. Money, too, either in large or small sums, is earnestly asked for, to be used in the purchase of material, and promptly converted into clothing. And contributions of materials will be greatly welcomed for the same end.

The gentlemen of School Street Church have generously given us the use of a room at 32½ School street for the month of March. We shall open it on March 1st. We trust that all contributions may be prepared and forwarded before March 25th.

All communications may be addressed to the undersigned, at 32½ School street, Boston.

In behalf of the former executive committee of the New England Women's Auxiliary Association.
ABBY W. MAY, Chairman.

By special order from the Department, Flowers & Patten's Boat Lowering and Detaching Apparatus was tried on U. S. steamer Mahoning, in Casco Bay, on Tuesday. The following certificate will show how it was appreciated by nautical gentlemen who witnessed the test:—

[COPY.]

STEAMER MAHONING,
PORTLAND HARBOR, Feb. 27, 1867.

We have witnessed the operation of the boat lowering and detaching apparatus, patented by Flowers & Patten, as exhibited on board the steamer Mahoning, and are fully satisfied with its efficiency and simplicity. It accomplishes all that is claimed for it. The boat was lowered with a full crew of men and detached itself with perfect safety, when the steamer was running eight knots. The apparatus is easily controlled by one man. The operation of the lock davits obviates the necessity of guys. The boat can be swung out and in by simply lifting a paul.

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILL

A Certain Cure for Diseased Liver and the many Dangerous Maladies which are caused by a morbid condition of that organ.

To give the public a clear understanding of the mode in which SCHENCK'S Mandrake Pills produce those wonderful effects which are attested by thousands of reliable witnesses, we present a brief and its functions, which will make the operation of this popular medicine perceptible to every man's understanding.

The liver is supplied with blood vessels, nerves and absorbents. One of the obvious uses is to secrete and prepare the bile. It likewise filters the blood and separates that fluid from all impurities. How indispensably necessary to health is the proper performance of this function! If the liver is diseased, it cannot purify the blood, and if that is sent back through the lungs, brain and other parts in a morbid condition, it must cause jaundice, biliousness, obstruction of the kidneys, gravel, and many other complaints more or less painful and dangerous, but the least of them quite enough to make a man sick and uncomfortable, and unfit for the performance of any of the duties of life. This unhealthy state of the system very often ends in pulmonary consumption.

The circulation of the blood is conducted in this manner:—The heart sends the vital current down through the arteries; it passes through the flesh, taking up all impurities in its progress; then the stream of blood flows backward through the veins, and passes to the liver to be purified. It is impossible to cure consumption, scrofula, or scarcely any other kind of ulceration while that important organ, the liver, is diseased. It is for that reason that "regular physicians" rarely cure consumption.—They usually begin their treatment with the use of some cough medicine, the basis of which is morphine or opium in some shape, which locks up the liver instead of relaxing the secretions, giving a tone to the stomach, and producing a healthy flow of bile. Dr. Schenck's will strengthen the system, purify the blood, and ripen and heal ulcers on the lungs.

A volume would be required, to give a brief account of the remarkable cures performed by Dr. Schenck's medicines, viz: Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills—all of which are accompanied by full directions for the use of them.

DR. SCHENCK will be professionally at his rooms every week, 32 Bond street, New York, and 35 Hanover street, Boston, from 9 A. M. until 3 P. M. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with the Respirometer the charge is five (5) dollars. His medicines are for sale by all druggists and dealers. Also a full supply at all times at his rooms. Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic, each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents per box.

15 Years Ago and Now.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS was struggling into notice against the prejudices which every thing new, however excellent, is doomed to encounter.

TO-DAY

It stands at the head of all the tonic and alterative preparations in existence. Its celebrity has evoked many imitations but no RIVALS. Physicians pronounce it the ONLY SAFE STIMULANT that has ever been introduced into the sick chamber. In the Hospitals of the Army and Navy, the surgeons find it the very best tonic for convalescents, and report it as invaluable for sustaining the vigor of troops on the march, as a remedy for scurvy and all scorbutic affections, and as the only specific for seasickness. California and Australia have emphatically endorsed it as the [illegible] par excellence, and in Spanish America and all the tropics [illegible] it is considered the only reliable antidote to epidemic fever.

TO MILL OWNERS.

Hoisting & Carting Machine,

FOR HOISTING LUMBER

Upon Gang Edger Tables.

BY this machine lumber is hoisted upon EDGER TABLES, to be edged, after passing through the Gang Saws, by water or steam power, thereby saving all the hard lifting labor of edgers, as is well known so arduous in saw mills.

Two men will edge from two to three thousand feet more lumber in a day with, than without, and do it much easier.

Whether sawing large or small lumber, it hoists the largest as well as the smallest sticks quicker than can be done by hand, and with no more effort than to handle one inch boards. In fact the machine hoists the heaviest timber with ease and rapidity, that is surprising and gratifying to see.

A greater labor-saving machine has not been invented in a century, the value of which can never be computed in dollars and cents.

Every one who pays his money for this machine will receive back again its entire cost by its use in one season, and in most cases in one half that time.

They are strong and durable machines, and will stand constant use for years.

Rights for sale by the inventor at Brewer Village, Maine. Further inquiries may be made of PALMER & JOHNSON, Exchange Street, Bangor, Me.

Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills—Ross Patterson, and Dixon

Mr Anthony stated that Mr Fessenden had been relieved from the chairmanship of the committee on finance at his own request

The committees were agreed to as above announced

Mr Henderson introduced a joint resolution to amend the constitution by providing that no State shall prohibit any of its citizens from voting or holding office on account of color

Mr Wilson introduced a joint resolution to prevent the sale or use of liquors in the Capitol building

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives, that it is hereby declared unlawful for any person to bring or directly or indirectly to cause to be brought into the Capitol building, or into any building pertaining thereto, any spirituous or malt liquors, wine or cider, for sale or use, or for any other purpose, and any officer or employee of the government who shall in any manner violate or connive or countenance any violation of this resolution, shall be summarily dismissed from office, and it shall be the duty of the Sergeant at arms of the Senate and House of Representatives under the supervision of the presiding officer in their respective houses, to enforce the provisions of this resolution under the same penalties for neglect or refusal to do so

Laid on the table

Mr Sumner called up the joint resolution appropriating $50,000 for the Paris Exposition purposes—which passed both Houses last week but failed to be engrossed in time—which was passed

The concurrent resolution for a recess from Monday next until the 8th of May was received from the House and ordered to lie on the table As read from the Clerk's desk, it provides only for the adjournment of the House of Representatives, and must therefore be amended before it can pass

Mr Sumner introduced a joint resolution declaring certain further guarantees required in the reconstruction of the rebel States, in addition to universal suffrage

The resolutions require that the existing governments must be vacated and bear no part in reconstruction, that provisional governments must supersede the present illegal governments, that none but loyal persons shall take part in the formation of the new State governments, that public schools must be established, open to all, and that homesteads must be secured to freedmen

The resolutions went over

The Senate then went into an executive session and soon after adjourned

House

Mr Eldridge asked leave to offer a resolution requesting the President to inform the House as to the condition of the public funds as affected by the tenure of office act, and the numerous vacancies in the subordinate offices of the treasury and the post office departments

Mr Stevens objected

Mr Shellabarger presented and had read by the Clerk a petition from Judge Underwood and some twenty other loyal citizens of Virginia, asking Congress to pass certain laws providing for the carrying out of the recent act for the better government of the rebel States He moved its reference to the judiciary committee

On motion of Mr Eldridge, the use of the Hall of the House was granted to the Congressional Temperance Society for Sunday evening next

On motion of Mr Robinson, the President was requested to communicate all correspondence, documents or proceedings in possession of the executive department relating to the arrest, imprisonment and treatment of American citizens in Great Britain or its provinces within two years last past

Mr Ashley, of Ohio, offered the following resolution as a question of privilege

Whereas, the House of Representatives of the 39th Congress adopted, on the 7th day of January, 1867, an inquiry into certain charges preferred against the President of the United States, and, whereas, the Judiciary Committee, to which said resolutions and charges were referred, with authority to investigate the same, was unable for the want of time to complete said investigation before the expiration of the 39th Congress, and, whereas, in the report submitted to said Judiciary Committee on the 2d day of March, it is declared that the evidence taken is of such a character as to justify and demand continuation of the investigation by this Congress therefore be it

Resolved, That the Judiciary Committee when appointed be and it is hereby instructed to continue the investigation authorized in said resolution of Jan 7, 1867, and that it have power to send for persons and papers and to administer the customary oaths to witnesses, and that the committee have authority to set during the sessions of the House or during any recess which Congress or this House may take

Resolved, That the Speaker of this House be requested to appoint a committee on Judiciary forthwith, and that the committee so appointed be directed to take charge of the testimony taken by the last Congress, and that said committees have power to appoint a Clerk at a compensation not to exceed six dollars per day, and to employ necessary stenographers

Mr Wilson of Iowa submitted a further amendment as follows—

Resolved, That the Clerk of the House of Representatives be directed to pay out of the contingent fund of the House, on order of the committee on Judiciary, such sum or sums of the money as may be required to enable that committee to prosecute the investigation above directed and such other investigations as it may be directed

Mr Ashley accepted the amendment and proceeded to address the House in a speech of an hour's length in support of his resolution, and in such unmeasured terms as to oblige the Speaker to call him to order.

Mr Spaulding, to whom Mr Ashley yielded five minutes of his time, denounced the whole scheme of impeachment as consummate folly warned his associates of the Union party against the idea, that because the President was an obstacle in the way of what was termed progress, he must be removed

Mr Ashley resumed the floor and again yielded to Mr Noblack, who said that charges had been published against Mr Ashley, which, if true, made him an unfit personage to bring these charges against the President

After discussion on points of order Mr Ashley said that the point which the gentleman raised had no possible connection with the case When the charges were first made against him, he came into the House and demanded an investigation. A committee of two democrats and three republicans were appointed and they unanimously exonerated him from any improper motive whatever.

After further discussion in regard to imputations against Mr Ashley, [illegible] eight minutes to Mr Butler of Massachusetts, who took the floor, speaking at some length

After some discussion the rules were suspended and arrangement made under which Mr Ashley moved a suspension of the rules, and allowed 30 minutes to Mr Brooks, and the gentlemen on that side to debate the resolutions.

Mr Brooks proceeded to speak at length against the resolutions, and denouncing the course of the Republicans in establishing a military despotism at the South.

After some discussion Mr Ashley offered to yield to Mr Brooks his remaining fifteen minutes, [illegible]

Mr Brooks declined to be limited to 15 minutes, [illegible]

Mr Holman moved to lay the resolution on the table [illegible]

Mr Wood protested against the revival of the question of impeachment at all.

A DESTRUCTIVE FIRE—ALMOST On Tuesday afternoon last, Mr Hutchings left his office in Exchange Block, nearly over the Traders Bank, at about 6 o'clock, and did not return till about noon the following day On opening his door at that time, he was alarmed by the smell of smoke, and soon found that the room was on fire. While in his office the previous day, he had amused himself by smoking a pipe, and as he occasionally shook the "instrument of torment" over a wooden spittoon filled with very dry sawdust, the contents had become ignited—During his absence the spittoon was entirely consumed, and quite a large hole was burnt through both floors, to the side of a beam underneath When the building was erected, a thick layer of mortar was placed between the floors and ceilings, and under the partitions In the present case this wise precaution, by making the space under the floors almost perfectly air-tight, saved this fine block, with its valuable offices,—"Bank," "Internal Revenue," "Pension," and others,—from a disastrous conflagration Let this narrow escape be a warning to all interested If people will smoke "villainous pipes" in their offices, they certainly should not use wooden spittoons filled with sawdust gunpowder

An Effectual Worm Medicine

BROWN'S VERMIFUGE COMFITS,

OR WORM LOZENGES. Much sickness, undoubtedly, with children and adults, attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. The "VERMIFUGE COMFITS" although effectual in destroying worms can do no possible injury to the most delicate child—This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be safe and sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children.

CHILDREN HAVING WORMS require immediate attention, as neglect of the trouble often causes prolonged sickness.

SYMPTOMS OF WORMS IN CHILDREN are often overlooked. Worms in the stomach and bowels cause irritation, which can be removed only by the use of a sure remedy. The combination of ingredients used in making Brown's "Vermifuge Comfits" is such as to give the best possible effect with safety.

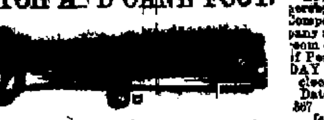
BUGBEE'S PATENT CRUTCH AND CANE FOOT.



THE Crutch Foot here shown is a great improvement on any heretofore offered to the public It is not only noiseless but perfectly secure in all kinds of weather and conditions of surface—It is instantaneously worked by the hand or foot, or by catching the knob D against any projection In detail, it consists of a spiral spring, rubber cushion A, steel brad B, socket C, knob D, and slot E. The brad B is held extended by moving the knob D, so that it falls into the slot E (affording perfect security against accidental slipping), but, by moving the knob D out of slot E, the brad B instantaneously falls back into place, leaving a smooth surface for floors and carpets

The Foot is easily fastened to any common crutch or cane, by means of a screw

CANCERS CAN BE CURED DR. L. CHASE, (LATE OF PORTLAND), THE CELEBRATED INDIAN OPATHY CANCER & HUMOR DOCTOR,

HAVING purchased the residence of H. A. Wood, 54 Hammond Street, Bangor, Maine would be happy to be consulted by all who are afflicted with

Cancers, Cancer Humors, Tumors, Scrofula, Leprosy Salt Rheum, Fits, Neuralgia, Bronchial Affections, Catarrh, Rheumatism, Sick Headache Liver Diseases, Female Weaknesses, Piles Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Diseases of the Kidneys, Stiff Joints, Gravel, Diabetes, &c., &c

DR. CHASE has practiced in his profession for sixteen years, and in that time has spent two years in Florida and Cuba, for the purpose of gaining a correct knowledge of the most efficient remedies used by the various tribes of Indians of that country, and by great expense has gained many valuable secrets which have heretofore been unknown, to the world.

In Cancer he claims superiority over all other Physicians of the age, for he never fails to perform a cure when taken in a proper stage.

His mode of curing Cancers is by the application of a plaster, which is strictly vegetable, and will have no effect upon the healthy flesh and in no case uses a knife, as does Dr. Greene, of Boston.

He also boldly asserts that he can tell every individual their disease and location of their pains and describe their feelings in almost every case, more minutely than they can possibly themselves

Dr Chase is not a Clairvoyant, but conducts his examinations on a strictly scientific principle, and will challenge any professed medium for a test examination.

CLOTHING AT OLD PRICES. NEW STOCK [illegible]

The Old Oak Tree.

Oh, the old oak tree is standing now.
Where it stood so long ago,
When in its shade we children played
Till the sun in the west grew low;
And its branches stretch as far and high,
And the sky above is as clear;
But under it now no children play,
In the golden day of the year.

The sunbeams creep through the rustling leaves,
That fall on the moss-grown seat,
And the tall grass waves where in other years,
It was trodden by children's feet;
And the bees hum lazily in the shade
Through the long bright summer's day,
And the soft wind murmurs with lonely sound,
Where we children used to play.

We are all gone from our childhood's home,
And have wandered far away,
Of all that band of the dear old time,
There are not one left to-day.
We are parted now by many a mile,
O'er the waves and mountains high;
And one has gone to the home beyond,
Through the golden gates of the sky.

And many a year has come and gone,
And many a summer's sun
Has passed adown the golden west,
When the long bright day was done;
And many an autumn wind has blown,
And many a winter past,
O'er hill and vale the shroud of snow,
Since we children met there last.

The weary years will still move on,
With their sunshine and their pain;
But there in the shade of the old oak tree
We will never all meet again.
But there is a city of quiet rest,
And its portals are open wide;
And one by one as the angels call,
May we meet on the other side!

Mr. Nasby Assists a Friend in Georgetown in Obtaining Possession of his Property—How they Circumvented Four Women and Eighty Nigger Babies.

Post Office, Confedrit X Roads, February 2, 1867.

I hev jist returned from a campaign wich hez proved eminently successful, and for my services in wich, ef I hed my just dooze, His Eggslency the President wood raise the salary uv the offis wich I now hold. The circumstances is suthin like these;

There wuz in Washington a young gentleman uv the old skool, whose name his innate modesty forbids me to menshun. It was his modesty, his retiring disposition wich, procoored for me the proud distinkshun uv assistin at the biznis. Ez he remarked to me when I arrived in Washington in response to his invitashun, 'Nasby, I've a d——d mean thing to do, and as I'm a Virginian, I must hev a Northern Democrat to take the heft on't orf my shoulders. They've allus done it, and they're use to it.' This friend for sich I am proud to call him, wuz originally a clerk in the Paymaster's Department under the Sainted Bookanan, and he held on, for reasons uv his own, under the gorillar Linkin, until the proper time arrived, when he throwd off all disgiss, and flew to Lee at Richmond and served the balance uv the war ez a major onto his staff. My friend hed a farm near Washington, wich, owin to the facilities for money making under the rain uv Bookanan, he hed saved out uv two years salary. This property the Linkin government, with the disgustin cooridity carakteristic uv em, declared abandoned, becoz a unconstooshnally raised army wuz between it and its owner, and seezed it for Government yoose; and to add insult to injury turned it over to a parcel of wimin, mostly the wives uv Senators uv the unconstooshnel Congress, who hed organized theirselves into a Assos'ashun to reverse the decrees uv nacher, and eddikate the naterally degraded children uv the accused sons uv Ham, wich is and must be allus servants unto their brethren. Senator Trumbull's wife and the wife of that hoary-haded skoffer at our instooshuns, Ben Wade, wuz the leadin sperits uv this impious movement; and they hed absolootly gathered together suthin like 80 orfans, ez they called em, uv niggers who died at Arlington Hites, and put em onto the farm uv my friend, and employed teachers and sich, and wuz actilly trying to ram learnin into em! Wuz ther ever sich nonsense? Learnin for niggers! How many Democrats is ther who hev good appetites without a particle uv it? Time rolled on, (a biznis Time hez followed with distinguished success for a great many years,) and the war ended. The stars and bars went down, and our coz wuz a lost coz. My friend surrendered with Lee, and cum back to Washington. He wuz reconstructed and wuz in a angelik and lam-like temper. He hed failed, but he forgive them ez hed bin the coz uv his failyoor. He cherished no hard feelins agin anybody. He wuz in Washington on the nite uv the 22d uv February, 1866, and wuz the loudest applauder uv the President's speech. The next mornin he went to the President. 'Let us, sez he, 'bury the hatchet. Let the era of good feeling be ushered in. I wuz a Confedrit. I am yet but we failed. But I am willin to be pacificated. 'Let by-gones be by-gones. I forgive yoo. Give me back my position in the Paymaster's Department wich I used to hold, and let things be normal agin.'

President Johnson grasped his hands and burst inter teers. He cood not give him back his posision becoz, and he went becoz et wuz so, it wuz okkepied by a Northern supporter uv his policy wich hed jest returned from a protraktid residence in Kanady, 'Washington,' sed Johnson, 'is the troo golden mean. Here extremes meet. I hev supporters who want offis from the extreme North and the extreme South. Wood, oh wood I could git em from the middle. Is ther anything else I kin do for yoo.'

'Nothin,' sed he, 'nothin, and he turned sadly away.

Time continyood to roll. Reconstruchshen by meansuv consiliashen wuz progressin. President Johnson wuz pardnin the supporters uv the lost coz, and where that wouldent conflicate, he wuz a giving back ther confiskated, property, and occasionally, in extreme cases, somebody else's. My friend heard uv this and come up from Richmond. Sed he to Johnson;

'My property,' sed this friend uv mine, who wuz reconstructed, 'is in the hands uv a association uv wimmin, who permits its sacred soil to be contaminated by free nigger babies. There is 80 or a 100 uv em, from the tender pickaniny who has jest entered the vale uv teers, up to the girl uv 12 who in two years more, wood, ef things wuz normal, be old enuff for market. Cood I hev that property agin, I—'

'Yoo shel,' sed Johnson, 'yoo shel.' Here is a pardon, and here is a order for the restorashen uv your property. Shel 80 or a 100 niggers stand in the way uv consiliatin a erring brother? Heaven forbid. And my friend went out with a lite hart.

But alas! he wuz somwat troubled to git possession, so he sent for me, and I come. Ther wus difficulties in our path. The wimmin had possession uv the place and wood not go. They wuz obstinat. They kept the doors locked, but I wuz ekal to the emergency. Gittin in a stable I hollered 'fire!' My friend wuz at the door, and when the affrited teechers, not comprehending the strategy, rushed out, he slipt in, and dared em to assault him, I immediately [illegible] him, and possession was ackquired.

Still they refused to vacate, but my friend [illegible] grate presence uv mind.

'[illegible] cold!' sez he,

'[illegible] hot?' sez I.

[illegible] think of we shood take the winders out, and the doors orf their hinges, that these [illegible] wood can't [illegible] staying, [illegible] in the thermometer [illegible]

'[illegible] dear sir,' sed I, [illegible] the concepshun, [illegible]

[illegible] need. The very presence uv a [illegible] Dimecrat inspires me. But to biznis. [illegible]

And we did [illegible] their [illegible] Gen. [illegible] property wuz ours, and another step wuz taken in [illegible]

For my trouble I took five uv the nigger children [illegible] ones girl nearly white 12 years old, and [illegible] boys. [illegible] so I shel take em to Mississippi, and as soon as the [illegible] laws on nigger orfans, they will bring a good price, e' the citizens don't by extravagant killin uv matoor niggers, make too many orfuns and overstock the market. However that aint much danger uv that, ez the labor laws hev bin so skilfully drawd ez to make the lives uv sich uv em ez aint too obstreprous, almost as valyooable ez they wuz when they wuz acctilly slaves, and I don't know but more so. Under this arrangement we don't hev to take keer uv em when they are sick, and aint got no capital invested in em, and their wages amount to the same ez it used to—their keepin. Altogether things hez a good and smiling aspect. The Lord uv Japheth is favorin us.

PETROLEUM V. NASBY, P. M.

CROSS-EXAMINATION OF A FALSE WITNESS. It is of Warren, the distinguished lawyer and author, that this sharp practice in the examination of a man accused of swearing falsely in a will case, has been recorded.

The prisoner being arraigned, and the formalities gone through with, he was asked if he had seen the testator sign that instrument; to which he promptly answered he had.

'And did you sign it at his request as subscribing witness?'

'I did.'

'Was it sealed with red or black wax?'

'With red wax.'

'Did you see him seal it with red wax?'

'I did.'

'Where was the testator when he signed and sealed this will?'

'In his bed.'

'Pray how long a piece of wax did he use?'

'About three or four inches long.'

'Who gave the testator this piece of wax?'

'I did.'

'Where did you get it?'

'From the drawer of his desk.'

'How did he light that piece of wax?'

'With a candle.'

'Where did that piece of candle come from?'

'I got it out of the cupboard in his room.'

'How long was that piece of candle?'

'Perhaps four or five inches long.'

'Who lit the piece of candle?'

'I lit it.'

'What with?'

'With a match.'

'Where did you get that match?'

'On the mantle-shelf in the room.'

Here Warren paused, and fixing his large, deep blue eyes on the witness, he held the will up above his head, his thumb still resting upon the seal, and said, in a solemn and measured tone:

'Now, sir, upon your solemn oath, you saw the testator sign that will; he signed it in his bed; at his request you signed it, as a subscribing witness; you saw him seal it; it was with red wax he sealed—a piece of one, two, three or four inches long; he lit that wax with a piece of candle which you procured from a cupboard; you lit that candle by a match which you found on the mantel-shelf?' 'I did.'

'Once more, sir, upon your solemn oath, you did?'

'I did.'

'Your Honor—it's a wafer!'

A DISAGREEABLE HABIT.—The Galaxy says:

The eyeing of women by women is one of the most offensive manifestations of superciliousness now to be met with in society. Few observant persons can have failed to notice the manner in which one woman, who is not perfectly well bred or perfectly kind hearted, will eye over another woman who she thinks is not in such good society, and above all, not at the time being in so costly a dress as she herself is in. It is done everywhere—at parties, at church, in the street. It is done by women in all conditions of life. The very servant girls learn it of their mistresses. It is done in an instant. Who cannot recall hundreds of instances of that sweep of the eye which takes in at a glance the whole woman, and what she has on, from top-knot to shoe tie? Men are never guilty of it, or with such extreme rarity, and then in such feeble and small-souled specimens of their sex, that it may be set down as a sin not masculine, or at least epicene. But women of sense, of some breeding, and even of some kindliness of nature, will thus endeavor to assert a superiority upon the meanest of all pretences, and inflict a wound in a manner, the most cowardly, because it cannot be resented and admits of no retort. If they but only knew how unlovely, how positively offensive they make themselves in so doing, not only to their silent victims, but to every generous-hearted man who observes their manœuvre, they would give up a triumph at once so mean and so cruel, which is obtained at such a sacrifice on their part. No other evidence than this eyeing is needed that a woman, whatever be her birth or breeding, has a small and vulgar soul.—[Galaxy.

HOME-POLITENESS. Why not polite? How much does it cost to say, 'I thank you?' Why not practice it at home? to your husband, your children, your domestics? If a stranger does you some little acts of courtesy, how sweet the smiling acknowledgement! If your husband—ah! it's a matter of course; no need of thanks.

Should an acquaintance tread on your dress, your very, very best, and by accident tear it, how profuse you are with your 'never minds, don't think of it, I don't care at all!' If a husband does it he gets a frown; if a child, he is chastised. Ah! these are little things, say you. They tell mightily upon the heart let us assure you, 'little as they are.

A gentleman stops at a friend's house and finds it in confusion. 'He don't see anything to apologize for—never thinks of such matters.' Everything is all right—cold supper, cold room, crying children; perfectly comfortable. Goes home where the wife has been taking care of the sick ones and working her life almost out. Don't see why things can't be kept in order; there never were such cross children before. No apologies accepted at home.

Why not be polite at home? Why not use freely that golden coin of courtesy? How sweet they, sound, those little words, "I thank you," or "You are very kind!" Doubly, yes, thrice sweet from the lips we love when heart-smiles make the eye sparkle with the clear light of affection.

Be polite to your children. Do you expect them to be mindful of your welfare? to grow glad at your approach? to bound away to do your pleasure before the request is half spoken? Then, with all your dignity and authority mingle politeness; give it a niche in your household temple. Only then will you have learned the true secret of sending out into the world really "finished" gentlemen and ladies.

What we say, we say unto all: Be polite.

HOUSEHOLD CARES. Mrs. Kirkland has very truly said that woman is never really and healthily happy, without household cares. But to perform house-work is too frequently considered degrading. Even where the mother, in obedience to the traditions of her youth, condescends to labor [illegible] the daughters are frequently brought up in perfect idleness, take no bed [illegible] except that of walking in fine [illegible]

A Paris paper tells the following anecdote of Lord Gray, whose death has caused so much regret in the English Society of that capital. Lord Gray was one evening returning from his club, when he perceived the loss of his pocket-book, containing forty [illegible] (£1,600) [illegible] but [illegible]. Next [illegible] to his [illegible] an early hour, and informed him that a lady in deep mourning wished to speak to him. Lord Gray desired that she should be shown into his drawing-room. 'My Lord,' said his visitor, 'you dropped your pocket book containing 40,000f; I bring it back to you.' The voice was sweet and low, but so closely was the lady veiled that it was impossible to guess her age or appearance. 'Madame,' replied Lord Gray, 'you have rendered me a service for which I heartily thank you. Allow me to ask if I may venture to offer you some remembrance of my gratitude.' The lady then hesitatingly confessed that she had recently lost her husband, whose death had left her the charge of three little children and that so utter was her destitution she had actually been tempted to keep the pocket-book. Lord Gray returned it to her, merely saying, 'you are my debtor—you or your children will repay me later.' Lord Gray received a visitor five years after this scene occurred, who appeared a total stranger to him. It was a lady. She handed him a velvet portemonnaie, on which his cypher and coronet were embroidered in gold; within lay forty notes of 1,000f. 'You will allow me to retain the old purse in memory of your munificent generosity,' she remarked.

OUR PILGRIMAGE. We are passing toward final rest ourselves. Do not regret it if the eyes grow dim. You will see better by and by. If the ear is growing heavy, do not be sorry. If your hand trembles, and your foot it unsteady, with age, be not depressed in spirit With every impediment, with every sign of the taking down of this tabernacle, remember that it is the striking the tent that the march may begin, and when next you pitch your tabernacle it shall be on, undisturbed shores, and that there, with tears through an atmosphere undimmed by clouds, and before a God unveiled and never to be wrapped in darkness any more—that there, looking back upon this world of ignorance and suffering and trouble, and upon the hardships of the way, you will with full and discerning reason, lift up your voice and give thanks to God, and say, 'There was not one trouble too much; there was not one sorrow too piercing.' And you will thank God, in that land, for the very things that wring tears from your eyes in this. Look, then, to that better land, out of all the trouble of the way, sigh for it, pray for it, prepare for it, and enter into it.

STRATAGEM. A story is told of Rev. Peter Jameson while attending camp-meeting near Pontiac, at a time when the Territory of Michigan was composed of two circuits. The Reverend, possessing quite as much zeal as physical strength, late at night sought in vain in the preacher's tent for a place to lay his mortal remains to rest. Slightly piqued that no place had been reserved for him, having borne the burden and heat of the day, the Reverend, had recourse to a stratagem. Retiring to the woods a convenient distance for effect, mounting a large log, he poured forth upon the night air one of those magnificent strains of music for which the early Methodist tunes were so justly celebrated. The effect was electrical. The sleepers half-awakened by the music, rushing out pursued the sound to the woods. Having collected a crowd, Jameson called upon a brother to pray, slid off the log, and returning to the vacant chair appropriated the best place; and most blankets and quietly resigned himself to silence and meditation.

CONSTITUTION
LIFE SYRUP.

A positive and Specific remedy for all diseases originating from an IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, and for all (hereditary) DISEASES transmitted from PARENT TO CHILD.

L

STRUMA, GLANDULAR SWELLINGS,
ULCERATION, KING'S EVIL,
ERYSIPELAS, SALT RHEUM

This taint (HEREDITARY and ACQUIRED,) filling life with untold misery is by all usual medical remedies incurable.

RHEUMATISM.

If there is any disease in which the Constitution Life Syrup is a sovereign, it is in rheumatism and its kindred affections. The most intense pains are almost instantly alleviated—enormous swellings are reduced. Cases, chronic or vicarious, of twenty or thirty years standing have been cured.

NERVOUSNESS.

Nervous Debility, Shattered Nerves,
St. Vitus' Dance, Loss of Power,
Confusion of Thoughts, Epilepsy.

Thousands who have suffered for years will bless the day on which they read these lines. Particularly to weak, suffering women will this medicine prove an inestimable blessing—directing their footsteps to a Hope which fulfills more than its promise

MERCURIAL DISEASES.

Salivation, Rotting of Bones,
Bad Complexion, Aches in Bones
Feeling of Weakness, Depression of Spirits.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP purges the system entirely from all the evil effects of MERCURY, removing the Bad Breath, curing the Weak Joints and Rheumatic Pains which the use of Calomel is sure to produce. It hardens Spongy Gums and secures the Teeth as firmly as ever.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP

Eradicates, root and branch, all Eruptive Diseases, of the Skin like

ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES,

and all other difficulties of this kind, which so much disfigure the outward appearance of both males and females, often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

F

CURES ALL SWELLING OF THE GLANDS.

Either of the Face, Neck, or Female Breast, and should be taken as soon as the swelling is detected, thus preventing their breaking, and producing troublesome Discharging Sores, which disfigure so many of the younger portion of the community, from six to twenty years of age. Young children are very subject to Discharges from the Ears, which depends upon a Scrofulous constitution. These cases soon recover by taking a few doses of the Life Syrup.

S

All scrofulous persons suffering from general Debility, Emaciation, Dyspepsia and Dropsey of the limbs, abdomen, and in the female, Dropsey of the ovaries and womb, generally accompanied with inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, are permanently cured by Constitution Life Syrup. The disease known as Goitre or Swelled Neck, the Life Syrup will remove entirely. The remedy should be taken for some time, as the disease is exceedingly chronic and stubborn, and will not be removed without extra effort.

Tumors of the Ovaries, Tumors of the Breast, and swelling of other glands of the body, will be completely reduced without resorting to the knife, or operations of any kind.

Y

Epileptic Fits, Sympathetic or Organic Disease of the Heart, as palpitation, Disease of the Valves producing a grating or filing sound, Dropsey of the Heart Case and all the affections of this important organ (persons suffering from any acute pain in the region of the heart), will be greatly relieved by Constitution Life Syrup.

BROKEN DOWN AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS SUFFERING FROM INDISPOSITION TO EXERTION, PAIN IN THE BACK, LOSS OF MEMORY, FOREBODINGS, HORROR OF CALAMITY, FEAR OF DISEASE, DIMNESS OF VISION, DRY, HOT SKIN AND EXTREMITIES, WANT OF SLEEP, RESTLESSNESS, PALE, HAGGARD COUNTENANCE, AND LASSITUDE OF THE MUSCULAR SYSTEM, all require the aid of the CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

FOR ALL FORMS OF

Ulcerative Diseases,

Either of the NOSE, THROAT, TONGUE, SPINE, FOREHEAD or SCALP, no remedy has ever proved its equal.

MOTH PATCHES upon the female face depending upon the diseased action of the liver, are very unpleasant to the young wife and mother. A few bottles of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP, will correct the secretion, and remove the deposit which is directly under the skin.

In the diseases of the Liver, giving rise to Languor, Dizziness, Indigestion, Weak Stomach, or an ulcerated or cancerous condition of that organ, accompanied with burning or other unpleasant symptoms, will be relieved by the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

AS A GENERAL BLOOD PURIFYING AGENT THE LIFE SYRUP STANDS UNRIVALLED BY ANY PREPARATION IN THE WORLD.

THE RICH AND POOR

are liable to the same diseases. Nature and Science has made the CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP for the benefit of all.

PURE BLOOD

Produces healthy men and women; and if the constitution is neglected in youth, disease and early death is the result.

Price $1 25 per bottle; one half dozen for $7.
